Proverbs 3

(5) Trust in the Lord with all your heart... (6) and he will make your paths straight.

I am so sorry that for now things did not turn out exactly like we wanted.

For now does not equal forever.

God has many ways of directing. He directs by obstacles placed across the way which I cannot overcome, and which drive me to a new way. He directs by clearing obstacles away, which I thought could not be moved.

He directs by delay, keeping me waiting long after I have heard His call to service. He directs by immediateness, flinging me out into a new position, where I must seek His guidance.

He directs by opposition...He directs by encouragements, by whispers in the soul, which makes a man dare, when all men tell him his daring is of no avail. He directs by disappointing - or by realizing our dreams.

No youth...has ever yet bared their soul to God, desiring to be led of Him, and determined to follow,
but that God has led, He has directed.
