

Dressed for Armageddon

Revelation 16:12-16

Take-Home Truth: The Battle of Armageddon has already begun.

Christ-Connection: Christ provides the means of victory for His people.

Hook: (Ice-breaker question. Get the group talking!)

1. What is your most favorite item of clothing? Why? How do you feel when you wear it?

Engage: (Observe the passage and engage with the text)

2. Read Rev. 16:12-16. Identify the symbols and discuss what they mean.

- In which ways did the sermon challenge your previous understanding of the end times.

Reflect: (Reflect upon the key take-aways from the sermon)

3. Richard explained we are “in the battle” now. How have you been directly impacted by the battle? What role are you playing in the war around you?

4. Richard said, “Revelation is all about God saving his people when all seems lost.”

- How does God’s past provision encourage you to trust him in the “battle” today?

Respond: (Apply the truths of God’s Word to your heart, affections, and actions)

5. Read Rev. 16:15. How do you, as a believer, remain awake and clothed in the midst of the battle we find ourselves in?
