I was to become a fool in the eyes of many and a saint in the eyes of others.... I preach and share the Gospel message of the cross, the Holy Blood of Jesus shed for our sins on the cross...Along the way I was to kiss the lepers, touch the sick and diseased. I wept with the hurting and shared hope with the lost and dying....

25

However, neither the cross or Jesus or ourselves were always welcomed....The curses rang out, knives at my neck, guns at my head, a firing squad with guns pointed at me, spit on my face, beaten and so often in danger, arrested 24 times...

26

My life became a saga of struggles and triumph, praise and damnation....I had to reach the point where criticism and praise affect me the same... To love in the face of hate, lies, evil and discord... to live out and put into practice as Jesus has asked us to do.

27

....I am a work in progress. Jesus has been grinding me to powder so that He can blow me where He will....I'm a saved sinner. Every day I pray and repent and say "Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God have mercy on me a sinner."...I love the Holy Spirit showing me where I have failed... and welcome God making me more like Jesus. I truly love to follow Jesus.

Yes, warriors have many scars, but do not see themselves as victims. On the contrary, they see themselves as...triumphant overcomers through Christ!

30

Onward, Christian soldiers, marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus going on before!
Christ, the royal Master, leads against the foe;
Forward into battle, see his banner go!
