

Astonished and Alarmed

Revelation 17:1-6

Take-Home Truth: God creates us to have a relationship with Him; we are to recognize His worth.

Christ-Connection: Christ's worth is eternally greater than all the glittery gold the Harlot has to offer.

Recap:

1. Share how you were a bold Ambassador for Christ this past week?

Engage: (Observe the passage and engage with the text)

2. Read Revelation 17:1-6. What did you understand in this passage?

Reflect: (Reflect upon the key take-aways from the sermon)

3. Who is the Woman? What metaphor does she represent? Rev. 17:1-3
4. What is the Woman offering to the city? Rev. 17:4
5. What city does Babylon point to specifically and generally? Rev. 17:9 and 17:15
6. How does this influence us? Rev. 17:6

Respond: (Apply the truths of God's Word to your heart, affections, and actions)

7. The Reason for John writing Revelation 17 is...
 1. To create a sense of _____.
 2. _____ is strong but is not sin.
 3. Seeing temptation for what it is: Choose sin or _____.
 4. Compel you to develop a _____ to overcome temptation.

5. To help you understand why new forms of sin _____ so rapidly.

8. Considering this, what is our hope? Read Revelation 1:5-6