

Who is Able?

Jude 17-25

Take-Home Truth: God is able to keep us from falling and to help us to speak of His mercy to others.

Christ-Connection: Christ, who is our strength, is calling us as His dearly beloved bride to come alongside Him out into the fields ripe for harvest.

Recap:

1. As you formulated an action plan this past week for coming out of the world, please share some of your strategies for overcoming the world's pull.

Engage: (Observe the passage and engage with the text)

2. Read Jude 17-19. With Ephesians 6:12-18 in mind, how can you prepare and protect yourself from those that divide, are worldly, and do not have the Spirit?
3. Read Jude 20-23. What three ways does Jude exhort us to keep ourselves strong in the faith? What three ways does Jude exhort us to engage with the opposition and false teachers?

Reflect: (Reflect upon the key take-aways from the sermon)

4. Read 2 Corinthians 5:20. Discuss what it means for God to call us His mouthpiece to save people from hell?
5. Caleb shared the quote, “Our silence to proclaim the Gospel comes not from a lack of knowledge but from a lack of vision.” How does our lack of vision prevent us from snatching someone from the fire?

Respond: (Apply the truths of God’s Word to your heart, affections, and actions)

6. Who have you snatched from the fire? Who in your life can you develop a strategy for engaging in this life saving process?
