

Four Hallelujah's

Revelation 19:1-9

By Richard Smith

Recap:

1. What changes this past week did you make in the treatment of others to show you are valuing people above possessions?

Take Home Truth: God will impose a final and permanent judgement on evil; He will gather all those who follow Him for an eternal wedding banquet.

Christ-Connection: Jesus died the death I should have died so I could live forever joyfully by God's side.

Engage:

2. Read Revelation 19:1-9. Discuss the Four Hallelujah's and how they provide hope for the church today. How do you see God's sovereignty in this passage?

Reflect:

3. Discuss the evils that we see in our society as depicted by the harlot throughout Revelation. How do we justify the rejoicing of Rev. 18:20 and Rev. 19:3?
4. Read 1 Peter 3:18 – How is that any of us escape the judgment of God?

Respond:

5. Richard said that there is no greater title in the world than "servant of God" in reference to Rev. 19:4-5. How can we align our view with the scripture's view on being a bond servant both small and great?
6. Read Rev. 19:6-8, Isaiah 61:10 and Luke 15:22 – What does it take to be clothed in the fine linen? Why is it important to be clothed with Christ robe of righteousness?
7. Men and Women view a wedding in different ways. In light of Rev. 19:9 - How do we anticipate being the Bride of Christ?
